

Cartoon Forum - The Co-Production Forum for European Animation TV Series

18. Cartoon Forum – The Co-Production Forum for European Animation TV Series
September 19 -22, 2007, Catalunya (Girona, Spain)

Deadline: 27.4.2007

Every year over 260 potential investors - all interested in animation - attend the Cartoon Forum. This includes over 100 broadcasters and 160 investors/video editors who have the advantage of getting a sneak preview of the latest animation projects for the television from 29 different European countries.

The Cartoon Forum is neither a fair nor a festival, but rather a co-production forum, where European producers can negotiate financing of animation TV series. The Forum combines trailer presentations, working sessions and business meetings with opportunities for socialising and sightseeing: the relaxed setting of the Cartoon Forum has become an intrinsic element for the whole European animation industry.

Cartoon Movie - The Forum for European Animation Films

7. Cartoon Movie - The Forum for European Animation Films
March 7 – 9, 2007, Potsdam (Germany)

Deadline: 1.12.2006

Along the lines of the Cartoon Forum, which aims at facilitating the financing of animation TV series, Cartoon Movie was designed to establish a synergy between distributors, investors and producers and thus accelerate the financing and distribution process of animated features in Europe.

Cartoon Movie is neither a fair nor a festival, but rather a co-production forum where European producers can negotiate the financing of feature-length animation projects. Cartoon Movie combines the trailer presentations, business meetings and screenings with opportunities for socialising.
